

2009-10 Season Events

Saturday, August 1: Sommerfest Opera Finale: Aida

Joint venture with the young patrons group of the Minnesota Opera, Tempo. This event will be a casual gathering with a pre-event outside on Peavey Plaza and then the performance of the opera Aida.

Friday, September 25: Russian Spectacular-Vanska, Hough and Sleeping Beauty, Season kick-off event with a Russian music, Russian vodka tasting, & Russian cuisine for the pre concert event on the tier drop, post party at Hell's Kitchen.

November 18: Members Only Behind the Scenes Event: Alchemy of Acoustics
Crescendo Project members enjoy an onstage reception followed by an interactive exploration of how sound is created with Stuart Anderson, Associate Professor of Physics at Augsburg and McNally Smith Colleges. We will explore phenomena and perception of music from a scientific perspective in the context of the arts. You'll never listen to music the same way again.

January 7: Casual Event, Sounds of Cinema Wizard of Oz

Revisit an old favorite! Happy hour social prior to the concert and post concert drinks.

Thursday, January 28: Inside the Classics with Debussy's La Mer

A great way to learn more about orchestral music. Pre-concert event featuring seafood and a post concert reception at Oceanaire.

February 19: Chopin, Mozart, Beethoven

You can't go wrong with these three fantastic composers and pre and post receptions with Crescendo Project.

March: Members only education event

Jazz: American Classical Music, details TBA

Friday, April 17: Berlioz' Symphonie Fantastique

Season Finale with pre-concert event on the tier drop and post concert event downtown. Featuring pianist Ingrid Fliter, winner of this year's Gilmore Artist Award. For more information: www.crescendoproject.org
