Complete three of the four boxes after you finish your research. Be prepared to share your thoughts with others.

Copy 2 quotes from the article, book or web site that seemed important.

Write 1 statement connecting what you read to something else you know.

Write 2 questions you have about what you read, or 2 questions you might ask the composer.

Draw 1 image/picture to represent something you discovered while researching the music or composer.