Study the instruments in the box above and answer the questions.

1. Some people confuse the oboe and clarinet because they both ________________________________

2. I can tell the oboe and clarinet apart because the oboe ________________________________

3. The French horn seems out of place in a woodwind quintet because ________________________________

4. The bassoon is easy to identify because ________________________________

5. The oboe and bassoon both ________________________________

6. The flute is easy to identify because ________________________________

7. The loudest instrument in a woodwind quintet is probably ________________________________ because ________________________________

8. The lowest instrument in a woodwind quintet is probably ________________________________